Dear

The office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator received (on 22 February 2006) your 3 February 2006 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for the 2005 CIA Inspector General report, Accountability with Respect to the 9/11 Attacks. We have assigned your request the reference number above. Please use this number when corresponding so that we can identify it easily.

We received an earlier FOIA request for the same report. We can send you the same CIA-originated record, if it is released, once that request has been completed. Because of our backlog, I cannot say with certainty when that will be.

For your information, the FOIA authorizes federal agencies to collect fees for records services. However, because search and review fees are borne solely by the original requester, you are responsible only for a reproduction charge of ten cents per page beyond the first 100 pages, which are free. Because fees will likely be minimal, we will proceed with your request unless you advise us otherwise.

We will contact you again when we have completed processing the original request. Meanwhile, we will appreciate your patience.

Sincerely,

Scott Koch
Information and Privacy Coordinator
